WHITEHAVEN HIGH SCHOOL

Whitehaven, Tennessee

Volume 17

D e d i c a t i o n

Mrs. Leone Short

Each student's high school career depends largely upon the foundation that he lays as a freshman. He forms certain attitudes and opinions which he keeps the rest of his life. The influence with which he comes in contact make up an important part of his character development.

No teachers have more responsibility than those who teach freshmen. It is their job to instill in a student a sense of responsibility to his school, his community, and his country. They must uphold ideals of character and conduct that will be beneficial for the student to follow.

D e d i c a t i o n

Mrs. Ozella Yort

Not only the freshmen, but the whole high school as well, loves and respects two of our freshman English teachers, Mrs. Yort and Mrs. Short. They are known to all for their friendly smiles and cheery words. Their patient instruction and understanding have meant much to all their students. With their wise guidance and Christian influence, they have affected the lives of their students morally, as well as intellectually.

To them, in appreciation for all they have done for us and our school, we, the staff, dedicate the Crossroads of 1955.

Alma Mater

There's a spot I'll always cherish
Down in sunny Tennessee
Where the warmth of schoolday friendships
Mean so much to me;
Where the boys are brave and stalwart
And the girls exceeding fair—
Oh, the halls of old Whitehaven
You will find my heart right there.

Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Through the years your light will shine
'Till it spreads a path of glory
Flaming o'er the sands of time.

There's a dream I'll always cherish
Of those walls I hold so dear,
Of the roof that spreads above me,
Of those voices kind and clear.
High she stands in reputation
Spreading arms of welcome wide,
Giving of her wisdom freely
To all those who will abide.

ADMINISTRATION

Administration

Our administration is one to be proud of. The arduous task of keeping a large school running correctly rests squarely on their shoulders. The wise guidance and council available in time of trouble gives each student a feeling of reassurance.

Science

An excellent four-year science course is offered at Whitehaven. The laboratories afford an opportunity for development of scientific initiative. Students are well-prepared to continue scientific studies in college.

MRS. OLGA FISHER
Peabody, BS

SAM TUGGLE
Memphis State, BS

Mathematics

The curriculum of the mathematics department consists of five courses, general mathematics, algebra I, algebra II, plane geometry, and trigonometry and solid geometry. Students who have taken these mathematics courses are well-prepared for further training in technical careers.

FRANCES GANDY
Memphis State, BS
University of Tenn., MS

MRS. J. W. BURKHEAD
Union University, BS
University of Tenn., MS

The home economics department is vital to girls who are planning to be home-makers or plan to enter some phase of home economics. It teaches girls the importance of a balanced, well-planned home and the understanding that is needed to run it smoothly.

Agriculture

J. W. BURKHEAD
University of Tenn., BSA

The agriculture department can be best explained by the motto of the Future Farmers of America, "Learning to do, Doing to learn; Earning to live, Living to serve."

MARY ELLA MOSBY
Memphis Conservatory
of Music, MB

Music Department

The music department gives opportunity to those who are musically inclined. The students learn to play the instruments of their choice, and they gain experience in vocal work.

R. H. HEINZE

The purpose of the radio club is to help members to obtain their F.C.C. amateur radio licenses. Since the club was organized, about thirty-five members have obtained their license. An amateur radio operator's license entitles one to operate a radio transmitter of his own. Many amateurs in the United States and foreign countries have been contacted from the school station. Members may be in the club for one year without having a license, but to qualify for membership the second year, they must have an amateur's license.

Crossroads

From far horizons each road winds
Across the years its separate way—
Threads lonely valleys, pulls its track
Up rugged mountains as it may.
Yet though the end each traveler seeks
Be distant from all other ends,
Here at the Crossroads all have paused
And mingled for a day as friends.

The best of everything
to a real sweet girl who I enjoyed knowing this junior year and may
we always be friends

a wonderful friendship
but it won't be the last,
cause we're going to be friends forever.
Best wishes and loads of luck and love!
Love ya!
